Responsive Reading Titus 2.11-14[^] and Ephesians 2.8-10*

Leader: The grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all people.

People: [The grace of God] educates us so that we can live sensible, ethical, and godly lives right now by rejecting ungodly lives and the desires of this world.

Leader: At the same time we wait for the blessed hope and the glorious appearance of our great God and savior Jesus Christ.

People: [Jesus] gave himself for us in order to rescue us from every kind of lawless behavior, and cleanse a special people for himself who are eager to do good actions.

Leader: You are saved by God's grace because of your faith. This salvation is God's gift. It's not something you possessed.

People: It's not something [we] did that [we] can be proud of.

Leader: Instead, we are God's accomplishment!

All: [We are] created in Christ Jesus to do good things. God planned for these good things to be the way that we live our lives.

Scripture Acts 2.1-21

1 When Pentecost Day arrived, they were all together in one place. 2 Suddenly a sound from heaven like the howling of a fierce wind filled the entire house where they were sitting. 3 They saw what seemed to be individual flames of fire alighting on each one of them. 4 They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages as the Spirit enabled them to speak.

5 There were pious Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. 6 When they heard this sound, a crowd gathered. They were mystified because everyone heard them speaking in their native languages. 7 They were surprised and amazed, saying, “Look, aren’t all the people who are speaking Galileans, every one of them? 8 How then can each of us hear them speaking in our native language? 9 Parthians, Medes, and Elamites; as well as residents of Mesopotamia, Judea, and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, 10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the regions of Libya bordering Cyrene; and visitors from Rome (both Jews and converts to Judaism), 11 Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring the mighty works of God in our own languages!” 12 They were all surprised and bewildered. Some asked each other, “What does this mean?” 13 Others jeered at them, saying, “They’re full of new wine!”

14 Peter stood with the other eleven apostles. He raised his voice and declared, “Judeans and everyone living in Jerusalem! Know this! Listen carefully to my words! 15 These people aren’t drunk, as you suspect; after all, it’s only nine o’clock in the morning! 16 Rather, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

17 In the last days, God says,
I will pour out my Spirit on all people.
Your sons and daughters will prophesy.
Your young will see visions.
Your elders will dream dreams.

18 Even upon my servants, men and women,
I will pour out my Spirit in those days, →
